

About our Partners:

Southeastern Regional Center for Children and Youth with Special
Health Care Needs (CYSHCN)

The Center is part of a statewide network that provides free and confidential assistance to families and providers. The five centers throughout the state are dedicated to meeting families' needs through information, referral and follow up, parent support services and links to community agencies that can help coordinate the many activities associated with caring for children and youth with special health care needs.

Family Voices of Wisconsin

Family Voices of Wisconsin is a network of families who have children with special health care needs and/or disabilities and those who work on their behalf.

We support families by providing information, training and leadership opportunities so that families can be informed and effective navigators of their child's care. We are committed to strong partnerships between families and providers to improve the systems of supports and services for children.

We believe that children are children first, regardless of their diagnosis, and that families have great capacity to care for their children and youth with special health care needs when they have informed choices, strong supports, and appropriate resources.

Who should attend?

Parents, Grandparents, Caregivers
Teachers and Aides, Health Care and
