It sounds like opening day at the Walworth County Fair will be quite an event, recognizing the 100th anniversary of the first 4-H club in Wisconsin. The governor is expected to attend, along with other dignitaries. When you think of the impact 4-H has had on families in Wisconsin, it is an amazing program. The hostess schedule for the Log Cabin is included in this newsletter. There are still some shifts that have openings for hostesses, so please call me if you can help out. It will be appreciated. Free admission tickets are available for those who do not have a season pass or life membership.

The WAHCE State Conference follows the fair September 8-10. Seven members from Walworth County will board the bus on Sunday the 7th and head north through Southeast District, picking up HCE members on the way to the Lakewoods Resort in Cable. It looks like it will be quite the adventure, with rooms in condos and cabins. There is still room on the bus, and Waukesha County has two bedrooms available in their cabin if you are interested in attending. Three hundred and sixteen members have registered from thirty-one counties so far.

I just received notes from Heidi Nevoso, SE District Director, on the recent WAHCE State Board Meeting held July 27 and 28. Associated Country Women of the World (ACWW) is encouraging everyone to hold a “Tea Party” sometime in October to raise funds to improve the lives of rural women. Tea Time is being launched by ACWW to celebrate Rural Women’s Day on October 14. See the details in this newsletter. She also reports that WAHCE will soon have a Facebook page to bring us up-to-date with the younger generation. Nominations are needed for Southeast District Director-Elect, Secretary, and Membership Marketing and Cultural Arts Chairs. If you are interested in any of these positions, Donna Zarovy, Kenosha County, is chair of the nominating committee.

Thanks to Barb Papcke for another great Mystery Trip to Ten Chimneys, home of Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne, early stage and screen stars. The dressing table in Lynn’s bedroom reminded me of one I had seen in a movie a long time ago.

I’m sure we are all wishing Jenny a speedy recovery from a broken fibula. She hasn’t said how she broke it, probably doing high jumps or the broad jump with the kids at her nutrition classes.

Enjoy the rest of the summer.

Another year has passed, and it is time for me to collect membership dues and Pennies for Friendship. You can bring them to our Fall Association Meeting on October 23rd. Also, turn in your quilt ticket sales money.

We are sorry the Hi-Los have decided to disband. I invite any of those former members to become members-at-large. Your dues are $15.00 a year, and you will receive all the information the club members receive. You also have voting rights.

See you at the fair and the association meeting.
Program Coordinator’s Report

By Eileen Guthrie, Program Coordinator

As I turned the calendar over to August, I couldn’t help but think, what happened to May, June, and July? Did you have the same thoughts? The summer season is a wonderful time of the year for reasons that are comforting and familiar to all of us, whether spending quality time with the family, or heading out on a vacation. Did you celebrate the 4th of July with a picnic, or did you attend the local fireworks? The long days of summer often build memories that last a lifetime. Do you have memories from your childhood or from raising your family during the summer months?

Do you feel more confident about your driving skills when you enter a roundabout after our Buckle Up! class at the Day of Learning? How about trying any of the new cuts of pork that we learned about? Have you fired up your grill this summer and used some of the pork recipes we received? I use the grill year-round, but summer is my favorite time of year to cook on the grill.

Have you made any of the recipes we enjoyed at the International Dinner? Hannah Earle did an excellent job sharing her experiences while studying in India.

Now that some of us know where we went on the Mystery Tour, Barb Papcke will tell you all about it in this newsletter.

Are you planning to help in the Log Cabin during the fair? This year, 4-H is being recognized at the fair for being 100 years old in Wisconsin. Many exciting things will be happening.

Following the fair, some HCE members from Walworth County will be boarding a bus and traveling to Cable, WI to attend State Conference.

Mark your calendar for Thursday, September 25 at 6:00 p.m. for Evening of Learning. See the flyer in this newsletter.

The Southeast District Meeting will be at the Kenosha County Center on October 16. Anyone can attend, if interested.

The Fall Association Meeting will be held on Thursday, October 23 at 6:30 p.m. at MILLARD CHURCH (note the change of place from the handbook). We will begin with a potluck dinner; each person is to bring a dish to pass and your own table service. Lynn Lokken and Kris Winkler, HCE members from Monroe, WI, will present an interesting program on aprons. Have you been selling your raffle tickets? The winner of the quilt and the cash prizes will be drawn that night.

Do you have any projects you would like HCE to study this next year? If so, please contact me, Eileen Guthrie, at 262-742-3134, or call the Extension Office at 262-741-4951, and give us your suggestion. Remember, this is your organization, and we want to please you with the project lessons.

Enjoy the rest of the summer!

Thank you...

Dear WCHCE Scholarship Committee,

Today I am personally writing to thank you for awarding me the WCHCE Scholarship. I am grateful to be the recipient and will do my best to prove I was the right choice. I will be attending UW-Platteville in the fall majoring in Animal Science.

I will be showing at the Walworth County Fair. I look forward to seeing you there if you come!

Schedule of Demonstrators for the Log Cabin 2014
By Barb Papcke

Wednesday, August 27
The Wisconsin 4-H Centennial is being highlighted as a part of the Walworth County Fair, with a special exhibit in the Log Cabin. The exhibit will include pictures and memorabilia from the 100 years of 4-H in our area. Walworth County HCE will present a display of former 4-H members’ projects.

Thursday, August 28
Members of the Rockford-based Northern Illinois Watch and Clock Club will be on hand to explain to visitors aspects of the workings and history of old mechanical timepieces. Do you have an old timepiece that has been sitting in a box or drawer for years? Perhaps it belonged to an ancestor. If you wish to learn more about that old clock or watch, you are invited to bring it along that day. Anyone doing so will be invited by club members present to ask: how old is it, where was it made, does it have value, could it be restored?

Friday, August 29
UW-Extension’s Get Moving! Walworth County program will be holding its Grand Finale events. There will be activities for everyone, plus prizes drawn after each walk! Enjoy the Animal Walk, Mini Golf Walk, Poker Walk, Bingo! Bingo! Bingo!, and the Digital Scavenger Hunt. Come to one, or come to all!

Saturday, August 30
Have you ever wondered how pottery dishes are made? Stop by the Log Cabin and watch local artist Carmen Goralski from Beloit Pottery work on her potter’s wheel. See all the different stages, from raw clay to finished piece of pottery.

Sunday, August 31
Su Ash Gustafson, “the Flute Lady”, writes and records music with a wide variety of flute-related instruments, made of materials such as ceramic, PVC pipe, clay, wood, and metal. At the HCE Log Cabin, she will be playing live and discussing and answering questions about her flutes and music. This is a must see!

Monday, September 1
Eleanor Coolidge of Studio S Fiber Arts yarn shop, specializing in knitting, crocheting, weaving, and spinning supplies, will be the featured demonstrator. Studio S carries an amazing assortment of yarns, fibers, notions, and books/patterns, and have a friendly, knowledgeable staff.

From the August 2014 UPDATE

Fifteen Wisconsin HCE members Traveled to Indianapolis, Indiana to attend the 16th annual National Volunteer Outreach Network (NVON) Conference hosted by the Indiana Extension Homemakers Association. 150 members were in attendance representing the states of Arkansas, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, North Carolina, South Carolina, West Virginia, and Wisconsin. Our immediate past WAHCE President, Lylene Scholz, is now serving as NVON President. Lylene presided over the whole conference.

At left, President Betty Anne Tubbin presenting NVON Vice President Pat Breznay a check in the amount of $8,670.90 from Wisconsin for the “Water Around the World” project.
Special Interest Program and Tour
By Eileen Guthrie, Program Coordinator

We will be going to Staller Estate Winery for a wine tasting party and tour. You may have driven past the winery and never stopped, so here is your opportunity to go inside, have a tour of the winery, and sample some of their wine.

Staller Estate’s vision was to create a multi-satisfying experience exemplifying their regional Wisconsin wines. Their vision was to build a family farm winery because of a passion for farming and appreciation of the wine aesthetic. Their hope is to provide a relaxing and educational wine experience for all of their guests at Staller Estate Winery.

We will be visiting the winery on Thursday, November 6 at 7:00 p.m. Cost of the wine tasting tour is $4.00, and if we choose to have cheese along with the wine, there is a $6.00 charge. We will discuss at the Fall Association Meeting if the majority of you would like just the wine or the wine and cheese. Reservations are required, so I will be asking you on October 23 if you plan to attend.

We will carpool to Staller Estate Winery, located on the corner of Highway 89 and County Road A in Richmond, WI, across from the Duck Inn Restaurant. The address is W8896 County Road A, Delavan, WI 53115.

Pennies From Heaven
From Eileen Guthrie, Program Coordinator

I received this on Facebook from my daughter and thought it was nice. Do you still see Pennies (or dimes) from Heaven?!

I found a penny today
just laying on the ground,
but it’s not just a penny,
this little coin I’ve found.
“Found” pennies came from heaven,
that’s what my grandpa told me.
He said angels toss them down;
oh, how I loved that story.
He said when an angel misses you,
they toss a penny down,
sometimes just to cheer you up,
make a smile out of your frown.
So don’t pass by that penny when you’re feeling blue.
It may be a penny from heaven that an angel tossed to you.

Heal Ourselves, Heal the World
July 9th, 2014 was the Walworth County HCE Mystery Tour. We had a beautiful day for our outing. 22 Walworth County HCE members and 33 non-members were in attendance, along with one 12-year-old grandson of an HCE member. Rock County HCE also had 3 members and 1 friend join us.

Our destination at this point was not known, but as we drove through the countryside, a few on the bus figured it out. As we got closer to our destination, I heard several say, “Oh no, are we going here? I have always wanted to go here.” Driving up the driveway, we saw a sign that read “Ten Chimneys National Historic Landmark.” Yes, we were at Ten Chimneys in Genesee Depot, Wisconsin.

Ten Chimneys is the estate lovingly created by Broadway legends Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne. We were greeted by a docent who had us place our bags and purses in complimentary lockers. We were placed in groups of 8-10, leaving every 15 minutes for a 2-hour tour led by knowledgeable docents. The full estate tour included the three-story main house, the rustic studio, the cottage, restored gardens, and the exteriors of the pool house, greenhouse, and creamery. The main house tour features the fourteen rooms of the main house. Ten Chimneys is “restored to its original highly ornate glory.” Yes, they also had a pool which was built in 1931, and they use it when they have fellowship programs during the summer.

Why did Lunt choose Genesee Depot? As a boy growing up in Milwaukee, Lunt and his family often picnicked in the rolling countryside of Genesee Depot. In 1906, the family settled in the tiny hamlet, and Lunt’s stepfather took up practicing medicine. In 1915, after coming into his father’s inheritance, Lunt purchased his own 3-acre plot and designed an early rendition of the main house for his mother and half-siblings. In 1922, Lunt brought his bride, Lynn Fontanne, “home” for summers in the country, a home that eventually became Ten Chimneys. It is staffed with over 200 volunteers that tend the gardens, dust the chandeliers, guide the guests, and much more.

Taking of pictures on the tour is restricted to only outside on the grounds and not in the main house due to the décor from Lunt’s golden years of the 1920s through the 1950s. It truly is more than a great museum.
Monday night, July 21st, WTMJ Channel 4 had a piece about Ten Chimneys’ 2014 Fellowship Program Master Teacher David Hyde Pierce. They were able to show the dining room, cottage, hen house, and several rooms in the main estate. It was very interesting!

Lunch on the tour was at the Delafield Brewhaus in Delafield, Wisconsin. We had a lunch buffet. The food was good, and two of the ladies on the bus said, “If at a Brewhaus, you must try something.” So they did.

After lunch, we made our way back to Elkhorn, but made a stop at the Elegant Farmer in Mukwonago. It was time to walk off some of the lunch, and, of course, they always like to go shopping! I haven’t been in the Elegant Farmer for years, but I did think some of the items were pricey!

Several on the Mystery Tour commented that this year’s tour was even better than last year’s tour, which I thought would be nearly impossible!

Elaine Jensen, an HCE member from Rock County, came to me before we left Mukwonago and said that a lady got on the bus in the morning that she recognized. It happened to be Janet Carlson. They both attended dental assisting school at MATC in Madison in 1964 and hadn’t seen one another since. Happy reunion!

Thank you to all who went on the tour this year, and a big thank you for the monetary gift given to me. Your generosity is appreciated.

See you next year for our Mystery Tour on Wednesday, July 8, 2015!

Peanut Butter Cookies

This is the recipe for the Peanut Butter Cookies served on the 2014 Mystery Tour.

1 box yellow cake mix
2 eggs
½ cup oil
1 cup peanut butter

Mix all ingredients together. Form into balls the size of a walnut. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Flatten with a fork. Bake at 350°F for 10 minutes. Makes about 3½ dozen cookies.

Recipe courtesy of Barb Papcke.

THANK YOU for being willing to hostess in the HCE Log Cabin at the Walworth County Fair.

One person should sell raffle tickets for the quilt and the other act as greeter/information person. Plan to arrive at least 10 minutes before your shift starts. Instructions are on the wall for closing the Log Cabin each evening.
An EEO Affirmative Action employer, the University of Wisconsin-Extension provides equal opportunities in employment and programming including Title IX and ADA requirements.

6:00 - Cooking with Today’s Beef
Alexis Nickelotti from the Wisconsin Beef Council will be presenting beef recipes, nutrition, and so much more! This presentation will touch on how beef fits into your healthy lifestyle, as well as the many different cuts and cooking methods. You will have the opportunity to ask all of the questions you have ever had about beef, while getting to try a favorite quick and easy recipe.

7:15 - The Healing Power of Acupuncture
Michael Luckett, CA is a Certified Acupuncturist with 25 years in practice. ‘Tea Time’ has been launched by Associated Country Women of the World and Salt of the Earth to celebrate International Day of Rural Women in October 2014. This campaign will bring people all over the world together to drink tea and raise money to reduce the deprivation of women living in rural poverty. Please join us in October and host your own tea party to raise funds to improve the lives of rural women. It doesn’t have to be complicated or time consuming but it does have to be fun!
ASSOCIATED COUNTRY WOMEN OF THE WORLD (ACWW)

Associated Country Women of the World works in partnership with over 460 member societies in over 70 countries worldwide. We work with our huge network of rural and urban women at a grassroots level, funding small scale development projects that are requested directly by local communities.

Some of the projects we fund are built around specific areas such as economic development – improving agriculture skills and business skills training; strengthening livelihoods – helping women to form micro businesses; capacity building for women’s literacy and educational projects for children; water, sanitation and hygiene – building wells and latrines; ensuring access to health – FGM awareness raising and training midwives. These are a few examples of the work that we have undertaken. Over the years ACWW has generated millions of pounds to support these projects worldwide. We also work at an international level, by giving women a voice through our consultative and partner status at various UN agencies.

SALT OF THE EARTH (SOTE)

Salt of the Earth is a successful and unusual UK charity that funds rural development projects in Southern India. The charity is run entirely by volunteers and has generated millions since 1988 to improve the lives of rural families living in poverty. All projects are delivered by its long standing partner organisation ‘SCAD’ in India and implemented through women’s groups in rural communities.

Projects funded by Salt of the Earth include pre and postnatal health camps, tailoring training for women, adolescent girls group formation and training, microfinance schemes, rainwater harvesting tanks for schools, legal training for women, early nutrition supplementation, and a host of others. All of Salt of the Earth and SCAD’s work is designed to empower communities and provide sustainable solutions to alleviate poverty and suffering.

THE UNITED NATIONS INTERNATIONAL DAY OF RURAL WOMEN (IDRW)

ACWW has a long history with IDRW. At the 1995 4th World Conference on Women in Beijing, ACWW was one of the initial proposers of an annual World Rural Women’s Day. This day was set as 15 October and endorsed by the Food and Agriculture Organization the next year. The name was changed to International Day of Rural Women in 2008.

IDRW has given rural women much more international visibility. ACWW members have remained very active in supporting IDRW each year, with diverse activities including publications, town-wide observances, questionnaires, statements and a variety of events. To view ACWW’s IDRW statements, please visit www.acww.org.uk/tea_time.

For further information on IDRW, please visit http://www.un.org/en/events/ruralwomenday/

“We must enforce and protect the rights of rural women. When women have access to land, there are improvements in household welfare, agricultural productivity and gender equality. And greater progress is made against poverty, gender-based violence and HIV/AIDS. It makes everybody better off.” UN Women Executive Director

Rural women work longer and have less stable employment than rural men.
Please join us and get your friends, colleagues and/or community members to drink tea and raise money for rural women across the world!

IT’S AS EASY AS ONE, TWO, TEA...

THE PLACE
Choose your venue according to the number of people you would like to invite. For ease hold your tea party at home or at work, or for more adventurous parties use your community hall or local tea room.

SET THE DATE
Choose a date and time in October that would suit you and the people you plan to invite.

MAKE A GUEST LIST
Make a list of friends, family, colleagues and community members who might like to join you.

INVITATIONS
Send out invitations using our invitation template: http://www.acww.org.uk/tea_time, or send an email/ text/ Facebook message. You could use the following text: “Please join me on ...[date and time]... at ...[address]... to drink tea, eat cake and celebrate International Day of Rural Women! I am raising money for projects that benefit the lives of rural women living in poverty around the world. Please come, drink tea and make a donation to this worthy cause.”

NOW FOR THE YUMMY BIT...
Get baking if that’s your thing or pop to the shops and pick up a cake or scones! You could also try asking your shop or local business if they would like to donate anything towards your fundraiser. For financial contributions from your local shop use our template at http://www.acww.org.uk/tea_time.

GET TALKING
Have a conversation with your guests about why you are supporting this cause. Download our fact sheet or explore our suggestions for further reading about rural women: http://www.acww.org.uk/tea_time. And think about the impact your money could have.

WHEN THE CAKE IS OVER
You can send donations by cheque payable to: ‘ACWW’ or ‘Salt of the Earth’. Please write ‘Tea Time’ on the back of the cheque along with your name and address and confirm if you are eligible for UK Gift Aid. By letting us know if you are eligible for Gift Aid we can claim an extra 25% on your donation with no extra cost to you. You can also submit your donations online at http://www.acww.org.uk/tea_time. Please let us know how you got on and send us a photograph and small write up of your tea party.

Please ensure that all funds reach us by 14th November 2014

HCE CREED
We, the Homemakers of Wisconsin, believe in the sanctity of the HOME, the cradle of character, blessed by motherly devotion and guarded by fatherly protection. We pledge ourselves: To work for the preservation and improvement of home and community life; To strive for healthier minds and bodies and better living; To promote the welfare of our boys and girls, the nation’s greatest asset; To be true to God and country and of lasting service to our homes and communities.

Mrs. John Meise, Sauk County

PRAYER CREED
Dear God,

Give us the grace to see the blessings that have come from thee; Give us the strength to do our duty To see in everything some beauty Teach us that love and cheerful giving, Tolerance and decent living, Make our home a place sublime, Where there’s no room for hate or crime, A place where good friends gather round; Where laughter, mirth, and cheer abound, Not selfish thoughts, not worldly greed,

Let this, Dear Master, be our Creed.
