A 4-H Charter indicates the 4-H Club or Group is organized in accordance with objectives of the 4-H program. It authorizes the club or group to use the 4-H Name and Emblem for educational purposes in accordance with laws and regulations established by Congress and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

- The purpose of the 4-H Charter is education, communication and accountability.
- A 4-H Charter is given to a new 4-H Club or Group as they are formed and meeting the requirements.
- 4-H Clubs and Groups must renew their charter annually through completion of the 4-H Charter renewal process. All 4-H Clubs must be chartered.
- All 4-H Groups (including committees, boards or other organizations) that hold any financial accounts must be chartered. If a 4-H Group does not hold any financial accounts, it must be formally recognized and accountable to the County 4-H Leaders Organization.

DIRECTIONS

4-H Club and Group Charters are issued at the time a new 4-H club or group is formed. The charter year is November 1 to October 31. Charters are renewed annually and will be granted upon successful completion of this “Wisconsin 4-H Annual Charter Renewal” packet. All sections in this packet must be completed by the 4-H volunteer club or group leadership team for the renewal year of this application. It is expected that youth officers and members be involved in this process. Do not leave any line blank. Adult and youth volunteer signatures are required on pages 3 and 5. Thank you for your time in this important process.

To be authorized to use the 4-H name and emblem, all 4-H Clubs and chartered groups must complete and return this packet at the time of formation to the County UW-Extension Office. Help is available from the local 4-H Youth Development Staff and 4-H Community Club Central Website: http://www.uwex.edu/ces/4h/clubs/index.cfm.

Why Are 4-H Charters Necessary?

University of Wisconsin-Extension grants 4-H Charters, which formally recognize a group’s affiliation with 4-H and grant that group permission to use the 4-H Name and Emblem. To be a chartered 4-H Club or Group in Wisconsin, the following requirements need to be met and maintained:

- Club name or group name
- Five or more youth from at least three families
- Adult leadership that has been approved through the Youth Protection process
- Educational plan which meets the purposes of the 4-H program
- Youth involvement in leadership and decision-making
- Meet on a continuing basis
- Have written operating guidelines, bylaws or constitution approved by members to govern the club or group
- Open to any youth eligible for 4-H membership, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, disability, ancestry, sexual orientation, pregnancy, and marital or parental status.

The University of Wisconsin-Extension, Cooperative Extension 4-H Youth Development Program has programmatic and financial accountability for all 4-H Clubs and Groups in Wisconsin. All 4-H Clubs and Groups must follow the Wisconsin 4-H Youth Development Policies.

WISCONSIN 4-H GREEN GUARANTEE

4-H Charters ensure that groups using the 4-H name and emblem are meeting the following components of the “Wisconsin 4-H Green Guarantee” and providing opportunities for 4-H members to develop and learn through 4-H.

- Develop positive relationships with peers and adults;
- Be actively involved in their own learning;
- Contribute as active citizens through community service and leadership;
- Develop skills that will help them succeed;
- Recognize, understand and appreciate others;
- Have fun.
NEW 4-H CLUBS AND GROUPS
ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION

These Articles of Organization are entered into by those who have signed below for the purpose of forming a 4-H Club or 4-H Group as an Unincorporated Nonprofit Association under Ch. 184 of the Wisconsin Statutes. These are completed once for the lifetime of the 4-H club or group.

Article 1. Name of the 4-H Club or Group/Committee, which is organized as an association by this document:

Check One: □ 4-H Club □ 4-H Group

A. Name of the County in which the 4-H Club or Group is located:

B. County 4-H Youth Development Educator, who, by signing below, agrees to oversee the 4-H Club or Group and act as the 4-H Club or Group’s agent:

Article 2. The 4-H Club or Group’s term of existence shall be perpetual. This means that the 4-H Club will continue to exist until it is dissolved, according to UW-Extension 4-H policies and the 4-H Club’s bylaws.

Article 3. The purpose of the 4-H Club or Group is to organize and operate exclusively for the nonprofit purposes allowed by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Section 501(c)(3) prohibits the 4-H Club or Group from paying any profits, above reimbursements for the 4-H Club or Group’s expenses, to any of its members, directors, or officers. Additionally, Section 501(c)(3) prohibits the 4-H Club or Group from taking sides either in political campaigns or in any effort to pass a specific law. This 4-H Club or Group will primarily operate for educational purposes.

Article 4. The 4-H Club or Group agrees to comply with all applicable UW-Extension policies and procedures governing 4-H, and agrees that the County 4-H Youth Development Educator has all necessary and proper authority to oversee the 4-H Club or Group to ensure the 4-H Club or Group’s compliance.

Article 5. UW-Extension is authorized to include the 4-H club or group in a group tax exemption, and the 4-H Club or Group will supply the County 4-H Youth Development Educator all necessary documentation to ensure the 4-H Club or Group’s inclusion in a group tax exemption.

Article 6. The 4-H Club or Group’s members, directors, or officers will be selected according to the UW-Extension 4-H policies and the 4-H Club or Group’s by-laws.

Article 7. These articles can be changed according to the policies, rules, and laws that apply at the time the articles are changed.
Article 8. Upon dissolution of the 4-H Club or Group, any assets will be permanently dedicated to nonprofit purposes and turned over to another recognized 4-H club, unit, or group with the approval of the 4-H Leaders Association and the county 4-H Youth Development Educator. The recipient of the 4-H Club or Group’s assets will only operate for the nonprofit purposes allowed in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article 9. Name, address, and signature of each organizer—the organizers are the 4-H Volunteer Organizational or Group Leader(s) and the 4-H Youth President or Chair:

4-H CLUB OR GROUP ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT

Name of 4-H Club/Group: _______________________ Today’s Date (mm/dd/yy) __________________

*EIN (Employee Identification Number, also known as the Federal Tax ID Number) __________________________

Wisconsin or Tribal Sales Tax Exempt Number (if the 4-H Club or Group has one) ____________________________

4-H money is public money. The safety of all 4-H funds, volunteers and members are of the highest priority. UW-Extension, Cooperative Extension 4-H Youth Development is accountable for the educational programs and finances of all 4-H Clubs and Groups.

• The 4-H fiscal year is July 1 through June 30.
• All 4-H Clubs and Groups must comply with Wisconsin 4-H Youth Development Financial Policies.
• All 4-H Clubs and chartered Groups are required to have an Employee Identification Number (EIN) number and submit a financial record and audit report to the County UW-Extension Office once each year. All 4-H Clubs must file an IRS Form 990 annually in cooperation with the 4-H Youth Development Educator.
• Federal regulations governing the use of the 4-H Name and Emblem require annual financial reporting/accountability of all organized 4-H Clubs and Groups. Failure to annually submit the financial report could result in loss of approval to use the 4-H Name and Emblem and the 4-H Charter.
• Funds raised in the name of 4-H must be publicly accountable and must be used for 4-H educational purposes.
• It is recommended that 4-H Clubs and Groups use a cash accounting method.
• Bank accounts need to have two signatures, one adult volunteer with oversight for the club or group’s finances and the youth treasurer. These two persons should not be related.

Information that will be required annually on the Annual Financial Report includes:

• EIN (Employer Identification Number), also known as Federal Tax Identification Number
• Wisconsin or Tribal Sales Tax Exempt Number, if your 4-H Club or Group chooses to get one
• A bank statement for all accounts held by the 4-H Club or Group
• A list of all funds received and funds dispersed and reported in the appropriate category.
• Identification of 4-H Club or Group accounts
• Documentation of the annual audit of the 4-H Club or Group accounts

*Employee Identification Numbers (EIN):

• The IRS requires UW-Extension to annually certify the complete list of subsidiary groups who are eligible to use the 4-H general tax exemption number (GEN). To accomplish this, each 4-H Club or chartered Group must submit an Annual Charter Renewal Packet with complete financial accounting to the 4-H Youth Development Educator working with the 4-H Club or Group. In turn, the 4-H Youth Development Educator is responsible to keep the official list of Wisconsin 4-H clubs and Groups up to date.
• The EIN number is needed prior to opening a 4-H Club or Group checking or savings account.
• If your club does not have an EIN number yet, a form is available at: http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/fss4.pdf. A sample form is located at: Sample SS4 Form. When completed, mail to: IRS, Attn: EIN Operation, Philadelphia, PA 19255-0023, or FAX to 1-215-516-3990. It may take about two weeks. Another way to obtain an EIN is by calling 1-800-829-4933. You will be asked for information and will receive your EIN when the phone conversation is completed. The IRS will send a confirmation of your number by mail. It is not recommended to use the IRS Internet online tool for obtaining an EIN because it requires giving a Social Security Number. Instead, complete the SS-4 then print and fax or mail it, or phone in the information.
• Contact your 4-H Youth Development Educator as you complete the SS4 form.

¹ Occasionally, the 4-H Youth Development Educator may need to access a record of individual donations during the last fiscal year. In that instance, the 4-H Youth Development Educator will contact you.

² Investment income includes interest earned in a bank account or trust fund, or income from land or other property.

³ Income from providing youth development services only includes fees charged directly to participants for the ability to participate in programs, such as 4-H camps. However, it does not include membership dues.

⁴ Other/Pass Through Fund includes fees collected for educational programs carried out by other groups. This money is collected from the member/family and then paid directly to the other group/organization.
