

Introduction to Food Preservation

Thursday, May 15, 2012

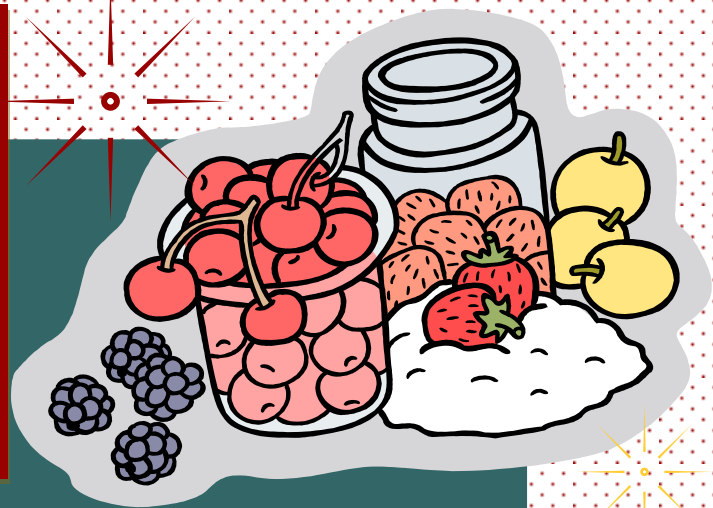

4 - 5 p.m.

East Troy Village Hall

2015 Energy Drive

East Troy, WI 53120

$5 Registration Fee

Do you remember the smells coming from your grandmother's kitchen during pickling, jam, or jelly time? Are you struggling with where to start? Join Master Food Preserver Jenny Wehmeier for an informational session on pressure canning, water bath canning, freezing, and dehydrating. This class is meant for beginners, but all are welcome. Participants will leave with many handouts and ideas of how to get started!

Sponsored by: East Troy Parks and Recreation
